SOME OF THE COLLEGE BUILDINGS.

WHAT IS THE COLLEGE? WHAT DOES IT ACCOMPLISH?

THE College was founded in 1872, as an Institution exclusively for the Blind. Students are received from all parts of the British Isles and the Colonies. The College is quite undenominational in character. Its Object is to train the Blind to earn their own living, and to render them independent, self-reliant citizens. Incredible as it may appear, this is an object which the College has succeeded and does continually succeed in accomplishing, and there are now more than six hundred and fifty former pupils not only earning their own living but in several cases assisting their parents.

84·4 per cent. of the graduates are filling their places in the world as organists and teachers of music, pianoforte tuners, clergymen, school teachers, governesses, shorthand typists, etc. Without the College training many of them would still be helpless and hopeless, and a permanent charge on the rates. The College is, therefore, an economic asset to the community, and should receive wholehearted and generous support.

As originally it arose, so it has continued, very largely by voluntary effort. The College is in urgent need of funds to continue its good work and secure such a fund as will place its national and imperial work for the Blind on a permanent financial basis. You, therefore, who can see, will you not help the Blind and give them the interior light of intelligence and hope to gain their livelihood?

It is considered a grand and noble act to endow a College for the sighted, Is it less noble to do so in the case of the Blind?

It should ever be remembered that it is cheaper to educate the Blind than to support them as paupers, while the moral and physical benefit which is given to any individual by training him to become a self-respecting citizen is an asset which cannot be over-estimated.

“ Help me to need no help from men,
That I may help such men as need.”

SOME OF THE "FIRSTS" WHICH HAVE BEEN STARTED BY THE COLLEGE.

1. PIANOFORTE TUNING, 1873.—A fuller and more comprehensive form of Training than had ever yet been given in this country.

Instruction in the tuning of the player-piano was commenced in 1917. The results have been more than satisfactory and have exceeded all expectations. No tuner can now gain his Graduation Certificate unless able to tune this instrument.

2. PHYSICAL TRAINING, 1873.—All forms of physical training, according to the British, American, Swedish and German systems.

3. DRAMATIC PERFORMANCES, 1881.—Mendelssohn's "Son and Stranger" was given in this year with only two seeing people in the cast. So much success was achieved that a Committee in Glasgow paid the expenses of the Party to give a performance in the St. Andrew's Hall of that city. Enough money was raised by this and repeat performances to print the Cathedral Psalter in Braille. All forms of acting are of the greatest value to blind people, and greatly assist in helping them to overcome stiffness of movement and awkward mannerisms. Since 1881 there have always been annual performances of at least two plays.

4. KINDERGARTEN, 1882.—The first School for the Blind in the world to open this particular branch of education.

5. SWIMMING AND LIFE SAVING, 1883.—Through the liberality of the late Dr. T. R. Armitage, a bath, 55 ft. long, 25 ft. wide, and from 3 to 6 ft. deep, was added to the College equipment. The Royal Life Saving Society was founded in 1891, and in 1892 five boys were successful in gaining their Proficiency Certificate. Since that date, forty-four Certificates and seventeen Medallions have been won.

6. TOOTHED WHEEL PENCIL AND COMPASSES, 1886.—These instruments enabled pupils to make their own geometrical figures and were specially useful in the working out of riders. Prior to this time attempts had been made to work figures with a needle and thread, but naturally with but little success. H.M. Inspectors of the Board of Education, heartily congratulated Mr. Guy Campbell in having introduced them into the College. The National Institute now manufactures and sells these exceedingly useful articles.

7. CYCLING AND ROLLER SKATING, 1887.—Eight-in-hand and twelve-in-hand cycles were purchased, and in addition to thoroughly touring over the roads of Surrey and Kent, journeys were repeatedly taken to Brighton and back, to Birmingham and to Derby.

Roller skating still continues to afford one of the most pleasing and healthful recreations at the College, and at various times the tests of the National Skating Association for Great Britain have been frequently passed.

8. TYPEWRITING, 1887; SHORTHAND, 1898.—Though type-writing and shorthand were started prior to these years at Birmingham, the College was the first to draw up and arrange a scheme of work which would qualify students to earn a living as professional typists and shorthand writers.

9. TRAINING COLLEGE, 1895.—The Board of Education sanctioned the opening of a Training College Department for the training of blind people to become teachers. As a result, graduates have been employed as teachers at Birmingham, Bradford, Burmah, Cardiff, Ceylon, Glasgow, Leeds, London, Montreal, Newcastle, Nottingham, Southsea and many other Institutions.

10. EXAMINATIONS OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC AND ROYAL COLLEGE OF ORGANISTS, 1901.—This was the first year in which these examinations were undertaken. To date, fifty-eight students and graduates of the College have gained the Associateship, and twenty-five the Fellowship of the Royal College of Organists, while thirty-seven have won the Licentiate of the Royal Academy of Music.

The following prizes have also been won :—

Lafontaine Prize, Fellowship ...	Henry Newell ...	July, 1916
" " Associateship	Victor Spanner ...	" 1907
" " " "	Sydney Anstey ...	" 1910
Sawyer Prize	Andrew Fraser ...	" 1913
" " " "	Sydney Jones ...	Jan. 1920
" " " "	Leonard Harding ...	July 1922
Turpin Prize, Fellowship ...	Wilfred Kershaw the late)	" 1914
" " " "	Leonard Marsh ...	Jan. 1918
" " " "	Percival Dean ...	July, 1922

11. DEGREE OF MUS. BAC., 1910.—Victor Spanner was the first pupil who obtained this Degree while a student of the College, though two other graduates gained the distinction many years prior to this date, after leaving the Institution. In September, 1918, Leonard Marsh was also successful.

How You May Help the College.

1. By giving a Donation to the General or Endowment Funds.
2. By becoming an Annual Subscriber to the General Fund.
3. By collecting Donations and Subscriptions (official collecting cards will be gladly sent to you from the College).
4. By employing our Certificated Pianoforte Tuners to tune your piano.
5. By recommending these Tuners to the notice of your friends.
6. By sending orders for typing, duplicating, etc., to be done by our girls.
7. By recommending our qualified typists to the notice of firms as well as individuals.
8. By putting us in communication with any blind person between the ages of eight and sixteen who is in need of training.
9. By employing or recommending the employment of our musical graduates as organists and music teachers, and of our literary graduates as teachers or governesses.
10. By organizing meetings in your district at which speakers from the College can explain the work.
11. By promoting concerts and gymnastic or swimming displays given by the pupils in aid of the funds of the College.
12. By securing an annual Church or Chapel collection, and inviting the pupils to render the musical portion of the service in order that their ability as organists and singers may be demonstrated and thus lead to future employment.

PIANOFORTE TUNING DEPARTMENT. — The College has Certificated Piano Tuners with practical experience in its employ, for whom the Authorities are seeking employment. All orders for tuning will receive prompt and careful attention. For particulars, address: ROYAL NORMAL COLLEGE, "TUNING DEPARTMENT," UPPER NORWOOD, S.E. 19.

"The purpose of this letter is to ask you to convey to your tuner our appreciation of the perfection of his work. It is sheer joy both to use and to listen to an instrument that has been tuned to such a degree of accuracy and with such obvious care and skill."—W.G.

THE TYPEWRITING DEPARTMENT is prepared to execute rapidly and accurately all descriptions of typewriting and duplicating. For estimates apply: ROYAL NORMAL COLLEGE, "TYPEWRITING DEPARTMENT," UPPER NORWOOD, S.E. 19.

The following Testimonials have been selected from many others received:—

"I am in receipt of your letter enclosing account for the reports which you have done for us. I am pleased to state that the work is quite satisfactory, in fact the best of the kind that we have ever had. I shall most certainly send you any further work of this sort that I may have, and shall make known as widely as possible the first-class way in which you turn out orders."—J. J. S.

"I have received the papers and am much pleased with them."—W. E. R.

". . . I have again to thank you for the excellent way in which the work is done. I cannot find any mistake in any of the three plays your girls have done, and I shall not hesitate to recommend your typing and to speak in the highest terms of the efficiency of the work."—F. R. C.

Obituary Notice.

The Board of Governors have most regretfully to announce the death of Mr. PERCY MILES.

Mr. Miles, who had been the Professor of Harmony, Counterpoint and Composition since the resignation of Mr. Stewart Macpherson in 1920, died suddenly on Tuesday, the 18th of April, as the result of pneumonia and a paralytic stroke.

Mr. Miles was a splendid teacher, and had won the esteem and affection of all with whom he came in contact.

The Board of Governors sent the following resolution to Mrs. Miles :—

“ That the sincere sympathy of the Board of Governors be tendered to Mrs. Miles for the sudden and irreparable loss which had overtaken her. The Board desire to place on record their appreciation of Mr. Miles’ abilities as a teacher ; he was a true gentleman and imbued everyone with the feeling he was a personal friend trying earnestly to help ; he was highly esteemed by all with whom he came in contact.”

Report of the Board of Governors.

Royal Encouragement. The continued financial and personal support of Their Most Gracious Majesties the King and the Queen, Queen Alexandra, H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, and H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, shows that the pioneer work of the College during the last fifty years, on behalf of the Kingdom of the Blind, is keenly appreciated.

On the 10th July, the following encouraging message was received from the Queen Mother:—

“ Her Majesty Queen Alexandra sincerely congratulates the Management upon the continued successes of the students, which are most encouraging and satisfactory.

“ Her Majesty can only hope that the College, in which she always takes the keenest interest, may be enabled to carry on unchecked its beneficent and all-important work.”

The College as Pioneer. The College led the way in providing Higher Education for blind girls as well as boys, and enabled the musical students to successfully compete with seeing students for such coveted distinctions as Mus.Bac., A.R.C.O., F.R.C.O., L.R.A.M., A.R.C.M., etc. The methods used in teaching the tuning of the pianoforte, piano-player, and harmonium and American organ, as well as Braille shorthand and typewriting, made it possible for hundreds of Blind Students to graduate, enter the open market and win their way to citizenship and financial success.

Summary of Fifty Years' Work. As 1922 marks the fiftieth year in the history of the College, a short summary may not be out of place.

1.—The College was founded in 1872, the object being then and now, to enable the blind to retain their self-respect by making them self-supporting citizens.

2.—Students are received from all parts of the British Isles and the Colonies.

3.—At present there are one hundred and forty pupils in residence, who come from one hundred and four different towns in England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland and the Colonies.

4.—The excellence of the training given is testified to by the fact that, of the six hundred and fifty Students who completed their training and graduated, 84·4 per cent. are now earning their living as organists, teachers of music, pianoforte tuners, clergymen, school teachers, governesses, shorthand typists, etc.

5.—In addition to scholastic and professional training, the recreative side—so essential to good health and self-reliance—receives special attention, and this is given, amongst other ways, by means of a well-equipped gymnasium, a swimming bath, roller skating and dancing.

6.—The College is a National asset of incalculable value.

7.—It has given the world large numbers of happy, self-reliant, self-dependent men and women.

8.—It has taught the possibilities of those handicapped by blindness, and, by its teaching and practice, has inspired the founding of similar Institutions in various parts of the world.

9.—Incidentally it has relieved the ratepayers of heavy burdens.

Successes of Students. The success of Students in passing Musical and Higher Examinations and securing employment is gratifying.

(For details see Principal's Report, p. 27.)

Friends and supporters all over the country are urged to continue to press the claims of qualified, and only qualified, students for a trial as pianoforte tuners, musicians, school teachers, governesses and shorthand typists.

Unfortunately, once again, a note of warning must be sounded. Unscrupulous blind people are still found claiming to be qualified when they are nothing of the kind. Sometimes these people obtain employment, and though they are soon found out and discharged, much harm as to the future employment of the blind has been done.

To safeguard against misrepresentation, all properly qualified students who leave the College are given a Certificate which, when asked for, they should be able to produce. We wish all prospective employers to know that if, for any reason, the Certificate cannot be produced, they will receive, on writing to the College, a reply by return of post, vouching for the statements of the applicant if they be true.

Special Tribute to former Graduate. In July, the University of Edinburgh conferred the degree of Doctor of Music on Mr. Alfred Hollins, thus marking their appreciation of the work of this brilliant organist and musician.

Queen Alexandra Rose Day Fund. One hundred pounds was again allocated to the College from this Fund, and the Board of Governors sincerely tender their very grateful thanks to the Queen Mother for this continued proof of practical interest.

Gardner's Trust for the Blind. During the year eighteen boys and twelve girls sat for the Gardner Trust Scholarship Examination, twelve boys and nine girls being successful.

The Board of Governors are deeply indebted to the Trustees, not only for the continuance of Scholarships, but for a special donation of £60 toward renewal of equipment in the musical department.

Pianos which have been in constant daily use for fifty years are naturally beginning to show sad signs of wear and tear. Twelve modern, up-to-date pianos are required if our musical students are to continue receiving the fullest benefit of the musical education and training. This means a sum of at least £600.

National Institute for the Blind. The Institute assisted two boys and three girls with grants, a kindness greatly appreciated by both the recipients and the Board of Governors.

Redecoration of Bedwardine Buildings. The four buildings, 9, 11, 13 and 15, Bedwardine Road, which had fallen into a very bad state of repair owing to the War and scarcity of funds, have been entirely redecorated internally. A new boiler and new heating system have been installed, the existing system, which had been in use for over forty years, having completely given out.

Annual Prize Festival. Extract from report by the Daily Telegraph, 4th July, 1922:—

"As usual, the Annual Prize Festival of the Royal Normal College and Academy of Music for the Blind, at Upper Norwood, on Saturday afternoon, attracted a very large gathering of friends of the Institution and sympathizers with its work, for it continues to command the confidence of a public which, for fifty years, has watched its successful efforts on behalf of the blind. The present being the Jubilee Year of the College, it was particularly fitting that Lady Campbell, the widow of Sir Francis Campbell, a founder of the College, should distribute the awards to the pupils. To mark the occasion of the Jubilee, and in memory of her husband, Lady Campbell handed the Chairman a cheque for £300, with which to start an equipment fund for girl graduates. The income will be used in assisting them to obtain such articles as typewriters and shorthand machines. There was the usual demonstration of work, and displays of roller-skating, swimming, life-saving, shorthand and typewriting. The Concert, given in the Hall, bore evidence of the excellence of the training in most phases of musical education, whilst the gratifying list of the successes gained at recent examinations emphasized the fact.

"General Sir Archibald Hunter, who presided, congratulated the College on the work it had performed and on the confidence it continued to command. The College, he said, had as Patrons the four most distinguished people in the land—the King and Queen, the Queen-Mother, and the Prince of Wales. That, in itself, was a tribute to its merits. He concluded by paying a warm tribute to Lady Campbell.

"Professor John Adams, Professor of Education at the London University, emphasized the point that blindness was a handicap more than an affliction.

He said he was sure all present could have nothing but admiration for what they had seen that day.

"The Principal of the College, Mr. Guy Campbell, referred to the value of such a fund as had been founded by Lady Campbell, and spoke, with pardonable pride, of the musical successes of the students."

Other important Journals spoke equally highly of the work carried on at Norwood.

Lady Campbell's Memorial Gift. The Board of Governors cannot express too highly their appreciation of Lady Campbell's generous gift of £300 in memory of her late husband, Sir Francis Campbell.

Concerts, etc. During the year, under the skilful organization of Mr. Reade, eleven Concerts were given by the Students in South Norwood, Forest Hill and Dulwich, resulting in a net profit of £130. At these performances, in addition to the musical items, demonstrations of physical exercises, dancing, and, in three instances, the acting of a farce by H. Lemon, "Up for the Cattle Show," were given to crowded audiences. Both the male and female parts were undertaken by the senior boys, and the enthusiastic and unstinted applause proved how much the acting was enjoyed.

The Waddon Residents' Association invited the Choir to visit them in March and give a Concert. The result was a cheque for £42.

Church Services. On the 8th July, the College Choir provided the music at the Sutton Masonic Service to the late Canon Turner, M.A., the greatly beloved Provincial Grand Master of Surrey. The letters received showed how deeply the singing of the Choir was appreciated.

On the 9th July a special Masonic Service was held at St. Mary's Church, Balham. The Press reported as follows:—

"The Masonic Service at St. Mary's Church, Balham, is always an impressive ceremony. The service on Sunday afternoon, held under the auspices of the Lodge of St. Mary, Balham, No. 3661, was no exception to the general rule.

"The offertory was on behalf of the Royal College for the Blind, Upper Norwood, and the preacher made an earnest appeal for support for the good work being carried out at the institution.

"The Master of the Lodge, Councillor G. T. Hoare, was supported by Councillor Shaw and Mr. W. E. Westcott, as Wardens, and the Grand Lodge of England was represented by Mr. H. G. Hills, P.G.S.B. (an old friend of the Balham Lodge, who was for many years Town Clerk of Wandsworth), and Mr. M. Ralph, P.M., G.P.

"Among the Clergy present were the Rev. Dr. Bryant, M.A., a Past Master of the Lodge of St. Mary, as well as its Chaplain, the Rev. W. P. Besley, M.A., P.G.C., Rector of St. Lawrence, Jewry, and Deputy-Priest in Ordinary to His Majesty the King, Rev. Dr. William-Fisher, P.P.G.C. (Vicar of Winson Green, Birmingham), Rev. H. J. Wright, P.M. (Chaplain of the Frontier Lodge.

No. 2092, South Africa), and the Rev. C. C. Thornton, M.A. (St. Mary's.) The arrangements were carried out by Mr. J. Walter Hobbs, L.R., P.M., P.Z., Organizing Secretary, and the members of the Lodge conducted the arrangements for the procession from the Schools to the Church and the seating of the congregation.

"The Lesson was read by the Mayor of Wandsworth, Dr. Jackson, M.A., M.R.C.S., after which the Choir from the Royal College for the Blind sang with much feeling Sterndale Bennett's beautiful anthem, 'God is a Spirit.'

"The address was given by the Rev. W. P. Besley, M.A., P.G.C."

Space will only permit extracts to be given from the wonderfully stirring address that was delivered.

"'I'll labour night and day to be a pilgrim.' These words, from one of the hymns sung during the service, the preacher chose as his text. . . .

"Now Brethren—and I speak not only to my Brethren in Freemasonry, but to all those who have come here into the House of our common God and Father—I come to you to-day with a two-fold message. First, with regard to the object for which your alms will be offered this afternoon, viz. the Royal College for the Blind.

"I have said that we are all ready to give liberally for those who are distressed—all sons and daughters of the Father we love and worship. It is not given in a casual way. It is given for a work that has the most wonderful results, and all like to see results for what they give. Is there a man or woman here this afternoon to whose eyes tears did not come when those who have been educated and trained at this College for the Blind sang that beautiful anthem in such a wonderful way. It was a most touching thing, at least, that was what I felt. It is a most beautiful faith, because you could hear the faith ringing through the whole of the beautifully sung anthem. In spite of being shut off from the light—and who of us can realize what that means? they could see the light of His Spirit, and they worshipped Him in spirit and in truth.

"The appeal of blindness to the compassionate heart keeps many people wasting their gifts by going about the streets begging, when they could all be trained if there were the funds to train them. They could be educated and made useful citizens, just as those are made useful citizens who are trained at this College for the Blind, which has such a wonderful record. Over eighty-four per cent. of those trained there are men and women in good positions—organists, choirmasters, teachers of singing, and pianoforte tuners, or whatever it might be. I ask you to give an offering that will be a thanksgiving for the blessing of sight—an offering that will have the element of sacrifice in it.

"The second part of my two-fold message is a much greater and more difficult work. It is to help the spiritually blind and to keep the children from being spiritually blinded. That is why I call you all to be pilgrims for God in the world that is about us to-day.

"What is the trouble with the world to-day? Is it not that the world cannot or does not see God? God is not given a chance in the world to-day. The world is blind to the need of God, blind to the fact that the whole peace and welfare of the world depends on coming back to God. Where do you find in our public life any recognition of God? . . . If the thousands of Lodges and the thousands of friends of Freemasonry once realized the glory of God and went forth as earnest men and women, with the one idea that God's Cause should be placed first, the imagination staggers at what could be done in the world about.

“ ‘There is my two-fold message. Help the blind, help the physically blind in the best way they can be helped, by assisting them to help themselves ; help the spiritually blind to come back and regain a vision which will enable them to see God. If you go forth and do what you can, each one of you, then you will each one become a blessing to your country, and you will have done a mighty work for the Father Whom you are pledged to serve.’ ”

“ The Offertory Hymn was, ‘ He who would valiant be.’ Prayers were offered by the Rev. C. C. Thornton, and the service closed with the Patriarchal Benediction and the National Anthem.

“ The offertory amounted to £54 6s.”

If Masons realized that seventeen boys and three girls, children of Masons, were now receiving their training at the College, it is believed Lodges would be willing to donate at least 10s. once a year.

Several Lodges have sent donations, but the Board of Governors would greatly prefer a small regular annual subscription to one large contribution.

Thornton Heath Moffat Road Chapel asked the Choir to come to them in November, and a cheque for £5 was donated.

Organ Recitals. Senior Organ Students gave successful Recitals at St. Clement Dane’s Church, St. Dunstan’s (Fleet Street), and the National Institute for the Blind.

Helping other Societies. A small party travelled, in January, to Luton to assist the County Welfare Association of Bedfordshire.

In November, the Choir gave their Annual Concert at the North London Homes for the Blind, and £25 was added to the funds of that Institution.

Staff. There have been changes of staff among new-comers, but the work of those who have been on the staff for more than twelve months, whether musical, scholastic, domestic or clerical, is thoroughly appreciated and approved by the Board of Governors.

The Board of Governors are gratified at being able to announce they have secured the services of Dr. Frederick Shinn, a Professor at the Royal Academy of Music, as successor to the late Mr. Percy Miles, whose sudden death has already been spoken of in the Obituary Notice.

Coventry “Help the Blind” Committee. The Board are again deeply indebted to this Committee for their kindly gifts of strawberries, crackers, figs, sweets, muscatels and Christmas puddings, accompanied by very hearty wishes for the continued success of the College work.

Concerts. Mr. Buckland and the Crystal Palace Authorities, the Penge and District Choral Society, the Dulwich Philharmonic Society, the Crystal Palace Orchestral Society, and the leading London Concert Managers again provided facilities for the pupils to attend Concerts at the Crystal Palace, the Aeolian, Wigmore and Queen's Halls. The continuance of this privilege is a very real boon both from the point of view of musical education as well as that of genuine recreation.

Visitors. In addition to many individuals from different parts of the country, such as Newcastle-on-Tyne, Birmingham, Bradford, Manchester, Liverpool, Edinburgh, Holland and Japan, large parties from the Waddon Residents' Association and Southlands Training College (Battersea), and the Kensington Secondary School also visited the College. The visits of Students who are the prospective teachers of the future are always heartily welcomed as it gives them the idea of what blind pupils can do, and awakens a very real interest in their future welfare.

Mr. Yoshimoto, a Japanese gentleman who has frequently brought his compatriots to visit us, recently wrote as follows :—

" I am back again in this country, and I am very glad to be able to report to you that some of my friends whom I took to your College years ago are now doing some good work for the Blind in Japan. One of them, who is now Secretary to the Royal Household in Japan, is also starting to do valuable service for our common Cause, not to mention others who have already contributed much for the Welfare of the Blind over there. Our Tokyo Blind School—our largest and best school for the Blind—which now compares favourably with leading Blind Schools in other Countries, owes more to your splendid example than to anything else."

St. John Ambulance. Through the instrumentality and enthusiasm of Mrs. Douglas, of Central Hill, Upper Norwood, First-Aid and Nursing Instruction was again started, after the lapse of several years, among the Senior Girls.

Football Match. In April, on the invitation of Mr. D. G. Jones, a football match was played at the Crystal Palace by the Upper Norwood Club versus Anerley Rovers, on behalf of the College and the Norwood Cottage Hospital. The College share amounted to £12 1s. 10d. It is hoped other Football Clubs will follow this excellent example.

Scouts. On the 7th October, our Scout Troop of twenty-three boys, consisting of the Beaver, Tiger and Lion Patrols, under the direction of Scoutmaster Merridan, attended the Prince of Wales' Rally at the Alexandra Palace. The following report as to their conduct and behaviour is interesting :—

" The discipline of the College Scouts left nothing to be desired. The splendid way in which they stood, firm as rocks, while seeing Scouts on either side of them got out of hand ; their prompt response to orders, and the absence of any signs of grumbling or complaint, in a word, their loyalty, cheerfulness and endurance, through all the tedious waitings, marchings and counter-marchings, proved them in all ways to "Be Prepared." It should be a source of genuine pride to the College Authorities, and reflects the greatest credit on the careful training given by the Scoutmaster."

Girl Guides. Miss Lily Ward, who had started the Guides in 1920 and was the first Captain, resigned in February. The College Authorities desire to place on record their appreciation of the time and energy spent in making the Guides efficient.

Miss Ward has been succeeded by Miss Mary Blomfield, to whom the sincere thanks of the Board are heartily extended for the devotion and enthusiasm with which she is "carrying on."

At the end of December, fourteen out of the eighteen Guides on the roll had passed their Second Class Test. In May, the Patrols took part in the District Rally and Knot-tying Competition.

Special Prizes. The Board of Governors are much gratified at having three additional Special Prizes added to the list. These special prizes are a real incentive to the pupils.

Mrs. M. Wood, a graduate of the College, for an Annual Prize for Neatness and Tidiness among the girls.

Miss Beatrice Darbyshire, for a Prize in Reading.

Walter Dixon, Esq., of Oxford, founded in commemoration of the Jubilee Year of the College, an Annual Prize for the best Essay. Last year the subject was "The Work of the League of Nations."

Urgent Future Needs. 1.—£600 to replace worn-out pianos in the Music Department.

2.—£2,000, for replacing the worn-out heating system of the main or Grosvenor Building—this is quite a different system from that at Bedwardine Road already alluded to.

3.—An increased Annual Subscription List.

4.—£75,000, to permanently stabilize the national and imperial work of the College, and allow more pupils to be received and admitted to its benefits.

Forthcoming Festival. The Prince of Wales, as a Patron of the Royal Normal College, takes the deepest interest in the welfare of this Institution, and, in proof of which, he has graciously promised to pay his first visit on the occasion of the Special Jubilee Festival, on Monday, 9th July. His Royal Highness "trusts that Lord Burnham's Appeal will meet with the success it deserves."

A list of the donors will be handed to him, and the Governors earnestly hope that the responses will show that a considerable portion of the amount required, £75,000, has been received before that date and that any balance remaining may be contributed on "the day."

Conclusion. Lack of means is at all times a serious clogging of the wheels of progress.

The Board desire to make it clear to the generous public that, as they receive no allocation of any kind from the sums collected by the Greater London Fund, or any other similar Association, they are compelled to issue appeals on their own behalf if the efficiency of the last fifty years is to be maintained.

It is cheaper to educate than to pauperize.

"I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow-creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again."

Will you, whose eyes enable read to you this Report, think of those who cannot, and by your kind contribution help the Principal and Staff to maintain and carry on the work of this pioneer College?

Signed on behalf of the Board of Governors,

LAMINGTON,

Chairman.

William McCarty is employed as pianoforte tuner at Messrs. Crane & Sons, Liverpool.

General.

The health of the pupils was generally good, though in April there was an outbreak of measles, which continued intermittently until the Summer holidays.

In November, owing to the increase of small-pox cases in London, the pupils and members of the staff, who had not been done during the last three years, were vaccinated.

Changes of Staff. In the School Department the places caused by the resignations of Miss McConnochie and Miss Kennedy were filled by Miss N. F. Sheavyn and Miss A. R. Hayden; in the Typewriting Department Miss Macgregor was succeeded by Miss Wilks.

In the Domestic Department, Miss A. E. Smith succeeded Mrs. Downey at "Walmer," and Mrs. Coutts took the place of Miss Powell at the "Primary."

Concerts, etc. In addition to the Concerts for which tickets had been so generously provided by London Concert Managers and others, alluded to in the Board of Governors' Report, the Norwood "Nine o'Clocks" invited the students to all of their very excellent Concerts; the "Nondescripts" invited large parties of the pupils to their delightful performances of the "Mikado" and "Gondoliers" at Stanley Hall, and the Eyre Family kindly sent tickets for their Annual Concert at Wigmore Hall. Mr. Balfour also very kindly secured a box for the senior boys to hear Verdi's "Requiem" at the Albert Hall.

Lectures and Recitals. Mr. Alec Robertson, of the Gramophone Company, assisted by Mr. Yeoman, delivered two interesting Gramophone Lectures on "The Orchestra" and "Handel and Bach."

Miss Procter gave a splendid lecture on "Astronomy."

Miss Jackson, a lecturer in the Training College Department, gave a most interesting lecture on "Austin Dobson."

Mrs. Acton Bond, composer of "The End of a Perfect Day," gave a talk and samples of her compositions.

Mr. Swann delighted the School with two fine readings of "The Admirable Crichton" and "The Passing of the Third Floor Back."

Mr. H. N. Casson delivered another fascinating lecture on "Sportsmanship in Business."

Miss Horne, assisted by Miss Dorothy Collins, provided a charming and instructive lecture-recital on "Moods in Music" from Purcell's time to the present day.

Mr. Stewart Macpherson provided fine lectures on Brahms, Purcell and Couperain.

Craft Instructors' Course. At the request of the Board of Education, the College of Teachers of the Blind were requested to organize and carry through a Course for Craft Instructors' Teaching in Blind Institutions. The College was asked to provide the lectures and demonstrations in connection with Pianoforte Tuning, and this was done by Mr. Kelley and Mr. Lines of the Tuning Department.

British Empire Shakespeare Society (Norwood Branch). The members of the Society gave four delightful readings during the year (bringing up the total, since starting, just over ten years ago to forty-six), viz.: "You Never Can Tell," Bernard Shaw; "Abraham Lincoln," Drinkwater; "Twelfth Night," and the "Two Gentlemen of Verona," Shakespeare. The vociferous applause on each occasion must prove to the members how very greatly their efforts are appreciated and enjoyed by the pupils.

Miss Amelia Campbell's Presentation. The completion of Miss Campbell's fifty years at the College was celebrated with a presentation to her in July. The occasion was very happily reported in the Crystal Palace Advertiser, from which the following extracts are made:—

"One of the first pupils to come to the College was Miss Amelia Campbell, who, although bearing the same surname, claimed no relationship with the heroic leader and first Principal of the College. The little blind Liverpool girl, as she was in 1872, is still at the College, having gone through a brilliant school career to a post on the teaching staff. Thus Miss Campbell celebrates her Jubilee in the same year as her 'Alma Mater'—a remarkable if not unique experience.

"Naturally, such an event was not allowed to pass without tangible expression of the loving regard in which she is held by everyone who has been associated with her being made to her, and Mr. Alfred Hollins, the famous organist and composer, and one of the College's most brilliant sons, initiated a fund to make a presentation to Miss Campbell.

"By great good fortune, Lady Campbell is on a visit to Norwood from the United States just at the 'time of Jubilee,' and nothing could have been more fitting than that she should make the presentation. Accordingly, on Saturday afternoon, the 9th July, 1922, the College Hall was filled with present and past pupils from all parts of the country to do honour to one whose life has so finely reflected the pluck and perseverance and firm faith of the late Sir Francis Campbell, whose great motto was 'Train the Blind to Help Themselves.'

"Lady Campbell presided, and at the outset expressed regret that Mr. Guy Campbell, the Principal, was unable to be with them. He was away with a number of students that afternoon at another function connected with the College.

"Mrs. Guy Campbell then extended a warm welcome to the many old friends of the College present, and read the message of greeting Miss Campbell received that morning from the Principal:

" 'Miss Campbell has a nature full of sentiment, ready to respond to all the chords of joy or sorrow, and to appreciate whatever is beautiful. She has had many hardships to endure, but her cheerfulness has always carried her through. Her sunny, genial disposition has won for her many friends, and she has never been known to lose one of them.'

"Mrs. Campbell said she could not say anything more appreciative of Miss Campbell than that.

"Lady Campbell said it gave her great pleasure to welcome so many former pupils and friends on such an auspicious occasion. She regretted that it was not possible for all who contributed to Miss Campbell's Jubilee Gift to be with them. She was sure she voiced the feelings of all when she said how much they missed Mr. Hollins. They wished Mr. and Mrs. Hollins could have joined them in congratulating Miss Campbell on her fifty years of successful work. It was through Mr. Hollins' kind thought that the gift was planned, and both Mr. and Mrs. Hollins had given much time and effort to make it a success.

"That morning, Lady Campbell said she received an Edinburgh paper announcing that the degree of Doctor of Music had been conferred on Mr. Hollins by Edinburgh University (loud applause). They all warmly congratulated Dr. Hollins, and she always felt that when an old pupil received an honour it redounded on the College and all of them, and made it easier for others to secure appointments.

"A telegram of hearty congratulation was sent from the gathering to Mr. Hollins.

"Lady Campbell, in rising to make the presentation to Miss Campbell, said it was with mingled feelings of joy and sadness that she recalled some of the early incidents of Miss Campbell's life. When Sir Francis Campbell (then Mr. Campbell) went to Liverpool early in 1872, to raise money for Scholarships to send blind children to the Royal Normal College from that city, he was asked to examine some children. Among them was a little girl, Amelia Campbell, who had been attending a class taught by a home teacher. To her great surprise, one of the first questions he asked was in arithmetic, for he knew that musical ability without mental power was of little practical use to the blind. She not only answered his questions, but made some clever criticisms on the sums. Then he tried her voice and musical ear, and recommended the ladies interested in the class to send her to Norwood.

"To-day," said Lady Campbell, "Miss Campbell and myself are sole representatives in the hall of that first band of teachers and pupils at Paxton Terrace, our first residence. We were a small and happy family.

"Sir Francis Campbell also constantly tried to inspire his pupils with a desire for self-dependence and a belief in its possibility as a reward for persistent industry and perseverance. It was his endeavour not merely to train their intellectual, musical or technical capabilities, but to develop all the powers essential to an active, useful, happy manhood or womanhood.

"Miss Campbell nobly responded to those appeals. Being gifted with a good voice, she worked faithfully to improve it and to acquire artistic skill. With what success they all knew. Lady Campbell mentioned Miss Campbell's successful appearance at St. James' Hall, when she sang the solos in 'Hear my Prayer' at an orchestral concert conducted by Professor Klindworth, of Berlin. The concert was criticised on its merits, not as the performance of blind students, and The Times critic wrote:

"The most impressive performance of all was Mendelssohn's 'Hear my Prayer.' Miss Campbell's sweet voice and unaffected pathos went straight to the hearts of the audience. Miss Campbell made a name and reputation for herself at Windsor Castle when she sang the solo part of Mendelssohn's work before Queen Victoria and the Court."

"For fifty years she has been resident among us as pupil and teacher. Her keen sense of humour, kindness of heart and Christian virtues have cheered and helped many a discouraged companion, and made her life a blessing to others. Every noble life leaves the fibre of it interwoven for ever in the work of the world."

"That she was beloved by her pupils and those with whom she was associated, the gifts which had come in response to Mr. Hollins' suggestion were convincing proof, said Lady Campbell. They had been sent not only from England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland, but from distant parts of the Empire and the United States.

"In making the presentation, Lady Campbell, turning to Miss Campbell, said: 'On behalf of the past and present pupils, the resident staff and former members of that body, and other friends, I have great pleasure in presenting you with a cheque for £78 10s., and a list of the contributors'" (loud applause).

"Miss Amelia Campbell was greeted with hearty applause on rising to acknowledge the gift. In a few warm-hearted sentences she expressed her thanks for the many kindness shown her, and spoke of the joy it was to her to meet so many old friends.

"Miss Campbell's little speech was naturally charged heavily with reminiscences, and many touches of wit, which caused hearty laughter. 'This is my golden wedding,' she said, 'for I am wedded to my work and to the dear old Normal College.' If she was spared, and her health remained good, she wanted to go on trying to do all the good she could for everybody.

"In conclusion, Miss Campbell said it was impossible for her to say all she owed to the late Sir Francis and to Lady Campbell. Those present could have no idea how much they had done for her in so very many ways, and she rejoiced that Lady Campbell was there that day—one of the very happiest days in her life (applause)."

College Functions.

Armistice Day. The pupils assembled in the Hall in the morning. A short address was held; the two minutes' Silence observed, after which the Principal explained the reasons for the Silence and the lessons to be drawn therefrom, dwelling particularly on loyalty to God, to our neighbour, and to ourselves.

Miss Harker very successfully produced, with the senior boys, fine performances of "Hal the Highwayman" and "Up for the Cattle Show." This last farce was publicly given four times to enthusiastic audiences.

The "Waifs and Strays," looked after by the Girls' Friendly Society, were again assisted by the senior girls, with a public Concert and a playlet, "Popping the Question," also under the able direction of Miss Harker.

The primary boys, directed by Miss Kennedy, gave a capital Entertainment, finishing with the very amusing farce, "Brummy Crook."

A very succesful entertainment was given by the Junior Guides and Brownies, under the direction of Miss Mack, which resulted in securing a welcome addition to the Guide Fund.

The Girls' Club Socials and Cinderellas were successfully held, and the Senior Boys' Sports were carried through in July.

A Dozen DON'TS in Dealing with the Blind.

BY J. A. CHARLTON DEAS,

Director of the Sunderland Public Libraries, Museum and Art Gallery.

1. DON'T treat the blind as though they were abnormal specimens of humanity. Never talk to a blind man as though he were deaf, or credit him with a child-mind, or address him through a medium.
2. DON'T refer to blindness as an "affliction," it is a "handicap." Never express sympathy for a blind person in his hearing, for you don't please him any more than you would a cripple by discussing lameness in his presence; there are more practical outlets!
3. DON'T try to carry a blind person when he is entering a tram or train, crossing a road, or going upstairs. He is not usually lame, and only needs to have his hand placed on a handle or rail. A touch on the arm is sufficient for leading. You need not help him to sit down, once he knows the location of his chair.
4. DON'T "tack" when piloting him across a road; avoid angularity, and go straight across if possible; otherwise, you may upset his reckoning or cause him to founder or side-stumble on reaching the kerb.
5. DON'T think that a blind guest is a serious responsibility, will break up your home, or need someone to dress, bib and feed him! To leave him a candle and locate the looking-glass are frequent errors!
6. DON'T ascertain if a blind man takes sugar to tea by enquiring of his wife or friend; his own mentality is usually capable of enlightening you on any such matter.
7. DON'T make unusual revisions in conversation, such as withdrawing the word "see," and substituting "heard." Use the word "blind" without hesitation, if you are discussing "blindness" with those so handicapped, but don't substitute this topic for the weather!
8. DON'T fail to speak, if only a word, on entering a room in which there is a blind person; it announces your presence, and helps to identification. Always shake hands when meeting or leaving a blind friend; for "a handshake is as expressive as the face," and is the substitute for the smile of friendship!
9. DON'T take it for granted that every blind person is a musician—or an idiot! Refrain from continually exclaiming "wonderful" or "marvellous," because he can do quite usual things, such as—tell the time by his watch, fill and light his pipe, or discover when it has gone out!
10. DON'T talk of an "extra sense," or "providential compensations," and so perpetuate an obstinate delusion. The so-called "miraculous" is only extra development.
11. DON'T limit your knowledge and interest in the blind generally, to the street mendicant, who is frequently a social parasite from choice!
12. DON'T be patronizing with the blind, always be natural, and never fail in real kindness, for, "you never know, you know."

REGULATIONS FOR VISITING THE COLLEGE.

The College is situated at Upper Norwood. The principal entrance is in Westow Street. An outline map, showing the position of the College and of different Railway Stations, Motor 'Bus and Tram Halts in the neighbourhood, will be found on the next page.

The regular Visitors' Days are the first Thursday afternoons in each month, except during January, April, August and September. Visitors will have an opportunity of inspecting the various departments from 3.15 to 5.15 p.m.

Parents or friends may visit pupils on the first Wednesday in the month, between 3 and 5.30 p.m. If, for any special reason, parents wish to see their children at other times, they should write to the Principal for an appointment. As a rule, it is not expected that more than two friends will visit any pupil on the same afternoon. When visiting the College, parents are earnestly requested not to bring young children with them.

The Principal can be seen on business by appointment.

~~is~~ Friends cannot visit the pupils on Sunday; this rule is strictly enforced. Parents are specially requested not to bring or send sweets or eatables to the children. If the children go out with their parents, they must not undertake commissions for other pupils.

INFORMATION FOR INTENDING CONTRIBUTORS.

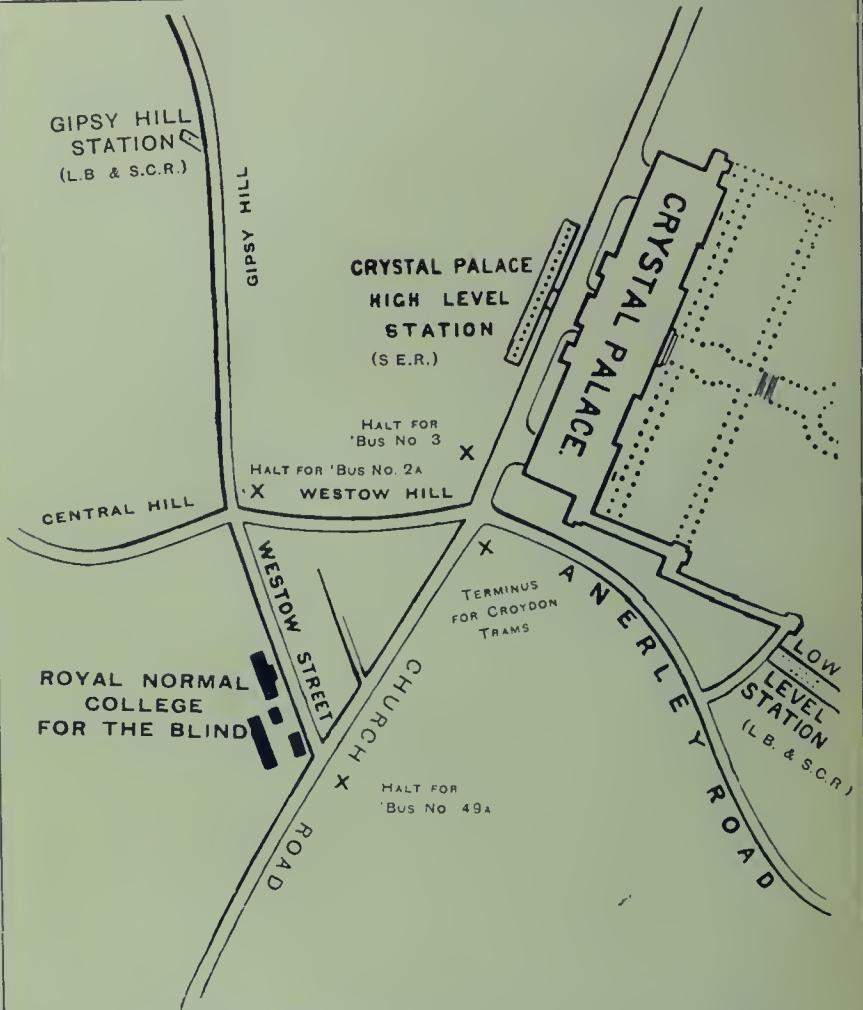

Annual Subscriptions, Donations and Legacies are earnestly requested, and will be thankfully received at the College, and acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, or by the Principal.

Cheques and Post Office Orders should be crossed Barclays Bank, Limited, and may be drawn in favour of the Hon. Treasurer, or the Principal, Guy M. Campbell.

The Principal will be happy to furnish any further information, and to forward copies of reports and various papers to all who may be willing to assist in bringing the claims of the College to the notice of the public.

OUTLINE MAP.

Showing the position of the College at Upper Norwood. the three Railway Stations, 'Bus halts and Tram Terminus.

The Public are cordially invited to visit the College.

Regulations for Visitors will be found on page 3 of the Cover of this Report.
